
EAPS Planetary Lunch Colloquium Series (PICS)

Leslie Young

SwRI Boulder

Tuesday, November 14th

12:30 in 54-517

Selected Updates from the New Horizons Mission to the Pluto System

In this informal talk, I will present a sampling of recent papers relating to the Pluto system and the New Horizons mission, emphasizing results from the last six months. These include hypotheses for the carving of Pluto's surface by sublimation; the composition of Pluto's moons; the final digital elevation models for Pluto and Charon; and new work on Pluto's atmospheric structure and composition, and more.

For more information, contact Alissa Earle (aearle@mit.edu)
