

BENJAMIN SIEGEL PRIZE

Deadline for submission is November 15, 2005

The Benjamin Siegel Prize of $2500 is offered to the MIT student submitting the best written work on issues in science, technology, and society. The Prize is open to undergraduate and graduate students from any school or department of the Institute.

Submit one hard copy of a single-authored work of no more than 50 pages written within the last two academic years.

The prize was established in 1990 by family and friends of the late Benjamin Siegel (S.B. 1938, Ph.D.)

Submit printed entries to:
SIEGEL PRIZE COMMITTEE || STS Program || E51-185
for information:
stsprogram@mit.edu || 617-253-3452 || web.mit.edu/sts

Science, Technology & Society at MIT

Massachusetts Institute of Technology