

Apply Online!
<http://greta.mit.edu/apply>

graduate (grā'joo-īr)
1. One who has received an academic degree or diploma.

resident (rez'i-dē nt)

1. Dwelling in a particular place; residing.
2. Living somewhere in connection with duty or work.
3. Inherently present.

g • r • t

tutor (too'tō r)

3. A graduate, usually a fellow, responsible for the supervision of an undergraduate at some universities.

Why be a Graduate Resident Tutor?

Free on-campus living

$1460 stipend for the year

Opportunity to work with MIT undergraduates

Strong relationships with MIT Faculty

And many other benefits – Check us out!

Who can apply?

MIT graduate students.

MIT Seniors continuing into a MIT graduate program.

Attend the next
Graduate Resident Tutor
INFO SESSION

November 3rd
6-7 PM
Sydney-Pacific
Multipurpose Room

Residential Life Staff and current GRTs will discuss the details of the GRT position and answer any questions you may have!