

THE EVERETT MOORE BAKER AWARD
FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE TEACHING
NOMINATION FORM

YOU can reward outstanding teaching at MIT with one of the few awards chosen and given by undergraduates!

To nominate, simply submit the following information to baker_foundation@mit.edu by Friday, March 13th.

Name:

Email:

Name of the teacher who deserves the Baker Excellence in Teaching Award:

Undergraduate subject(s) taken with your nominee:

Nomination:

When you write your nomination, consider the following:

- *Teaching effectiveness
- *Approachability
- *Responsiveness to students' progress
- *Impact

In other words, what does this teacher do, in and out of the classroom, to make sure you have a positive learning experience? Feel free to use additional pages if you need more room.

Thanks for your input!

The Everett Moore Baker Memorial Foundation is an MIT Presidential Institute Committee. The Foundation serves to perpetuate the memory of Dean Everett Moore Baker, a staunch protagonist for the consideration of human beings as individuals, a vigorous proponent of a broad educational policy, a dynamic extra-curricular program, and a congenial physical and intellectual environment at MIT and an ardent worker toward friendly relations among the peoples of all nations. Learn more about the Baker Foundation at <http://web.mit.edu/baker-foundation/www/>