The Graduate Consortium in Women's Studies is a program that offers interdisciplinary, team-taught seminars to students who are enrolled in graduate programs at our member institutions. GCWS faculty explicitly integrate gender analysis with issues of class, race, culture, ethnicity, and sexualities and consider the practical implications of feminist theory. There is no fee for GCWS courses. Students are granted credit for participation by their home institutions and are admitted by application; application information is available on our web site:
