

Be prepared for a global career

Reckitt Benckiser is a global powerhouse in the health, hygiene and home categories. We sell our products in over 200 countries and have offices in more than 60. Our 19 Powerbrands, such as Dettol, Veet, Vanish, Nurofen, Strepsils, Durex and Airwick are relied on across the world and are market leaders.

Our vision is a world where people are healthier and live better. We believe that good health is the key to happiness, hygiene is the foundation of healthy living and the home is the centre of family life. We outperform our competitors by continuously developing and launching innovative products that help our customers by giving them innovative solutions that make their lives healthier and their homes happier.

Are you one of us?

At the heart of RB's success is our people, which is why we are always on the look out for individuals who are insanely driven to achieve – people who strive to succeed. Each day is demanding with multi-national, multi-disciplined teams making split-second decisions that have a real impact on our business. We need people who are up for a challenge and want the freedom to make their mark.

It's an exciting journey – do you want to be a part of it?
