

You're Invited
to GlobeMed at MIT's 2nd annual Gala for Hope

The evening of Friday, October 9th from 6-9 PM at the Microsoft NERD Center
1 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, MA

GlobeMed at MIT will be hosting its second annual charity gala to benefit our partner, Hope Through Health. 100% of the proceeds from the event will be donated directly to Hope Through Health to benefit their five HIV health clinics in northern Togo.

The evening will feature presentations by leaders in the fields of global health and poverty. These include Sam Daley-Harris, CEO of the Center for Citizen Empowerment and Transformation and founder of RESULTS, and Dr. Anita Shankar, medical anthropologist and public health researcher at the Johns Hopkins University, Bloomberg School of Public Health. Full speaker bios can be found on our website, globemed.mit.edu.

Dinner by Sara Eller's Catering and a cash bar will be provided. Cocktail attire is recommended.

Full event information, including parking and driving directions, will be posted at globemed.mit.edu/2015-gala closer to the event. Tickets are now on sale at tickets.mit.edu.
