

Want to know how your professor went from being a student to the most cited engineer in history?

Come hear David H. Koch Institute Professor Robert Langer talk about how he became “one of history’s most prolific inventors in medicine,” and how he is developing treatments for cancer and other devastating diseases.

Mon. November 30th @ 4:15 pm in 6-120

Office of the Chancellor