

21H.382 Capitalism in the Age of Revolution

Beginning with the first major stock market crashes, this seminar looks at the 18th century as a period of emerging conflict between finance and democracy. The focus is on the monopoly trading corporation and its role in radicalizing the pursuit of private profit and the politics of public credit.

Wednesday 2-5, E51-390 Malick Ghachem