

WGS 615: Feminist Inquiry

Tuesdays
1:30 - 4:30 PM
January 30 - May 8

As an interdisciplinary course, Feminist Inquiry will engage students in questioning disciplinary assumptions and methodologies, seeking new ways to frame scholarly questions, and reconsidering the relationship between subjects and objects of study. Feminist Inquiry is simultaneously challenging and creative, as disciplines are revised by the analysis of gender, race, class, and sexual orientation, both embedded within and shaping particular historical, national, and cultural contexts. Students will also have the opportunity to engage in two "hands on" research inquiries of their own.
