

23rd European Career Fair

Dear fellow Students, Post-docs and Young Professionals,

We are pleased to announce that the MIT European Career Fair (ECF) 2019 will take place on Saturday, February 16th at MIT's Johnson Athletic Center in Cambridge, MA.

Whether you are looking for industry jobs or academic positions, in Europe or in the US, the ECF is your best opportunity. Candidates are welcome to register for free and submit their résumé prior to the fair to be selected for interviews and a complimentary résumé workshop.

Register for the MIT ECF 2019 at <https://euro-career.mit.edu>.

The ECF is the largest of its kind in the United States, with over 90 European companies, universities and research organizations from the science, engineering, and consulting sectors. This year we are pleased to host Airbus, Daimler, Bayer, ABB, Roche, ETH, and Max Planck Society, amongst others.

Follow us on LinkedIn and Facebook. For questions, contact us at support_ecf2019@mit.edu.

We are looking forward to your presence at the MIT ECF 2019!
