

PhD to Leadership Series

Dr. Barbara Fox - Rheos Medicines

Barbara Fox, PhD
CEO

Join us for an intimate fireside chat with Dr. Barbara Fox to gain a unique perspective on her journey from her MIT PhD to CEO at the biopharmaceutical company, Rheos.

Dr. Barbara Fox is Chief Executive Officer at Rheos Medicines, where she propels the development of precision medicines for autoimmune and inflammatory diseases with the proprietary MetPM platform. Prior to joining Rheos, Barbara was the founding CEO at Tilos Therapeutics, the first Entrepreneur-in-Residence at Partners Innovation Fund, founding CEO of Avaxia Biologics, Founder and CSO of Recovery Pharmaceuticals, and VP of Discovery and Immunology at ImmuLogic Pharmaceutical Corporation. Barbara completed her post-doctoral fellowship in Cellular Immunology at NIH, received her PhD in Chemistry at MIT, and earned an A.B. in Chemistry from Bryn Mawr College.
