

Schlumberger Info Session

Monday, February 12, 2007

Speaker: Larry Schwartz, PhD,
Schlumberger University Relations

Time: 6:00p–8:00p

Location: Bld. 66-160

MIT Energy Club Industry Series

The Energy Club hosts energy company infosessions on campus to give members an insight into the energy industry and to provide job opportunities for its members.

Schlumberger Doll Research (Cambridge, MA) Presents:

Larry Schwartz, PhD
Schlumberger University Relations,
Scientific Advisor, will discuss internship and full time career opportunities in Research and Development and explain how scientists and engineers help create, design and develop Schlumberger's industry-leading equipment, technology and software, worldwide.

Schlumberger also offers opportunities for Interns to work in the field and in the state of the art engineering centers on significant company projects under the guidance of a mentor.

About Schlumberger:

Schlumberger Limited is the world's largest oilfield services corporation operating in over 80 countries, with about 70,000 people of 140 nationalities. Schlumberger supplies a wide range of products and services from seismic acquisition and processing; formation evaluation; well testing and directional drilling to well cementing and stimulation; artificial lift and well completions; and consulting, software and information management.

Open to: the general public

Sponsor: MIT Energy Club

For more information, contact:
Alexander Khalin
mit\_energy@mit.edu

