

Graduate Women at MIT

Spring Kick-Off

April 26-30

Keynote, “The Evolution of Bias”

Freda Kapur Klein, an expert on workplace diversity relations, will describe implicit and explicit gender-related bias in academic environments.

Sponsored in part by Microsoft and the Division of Student Life. Reception to follow.

Monday 4/26

5:30-6:30pm
46-3002

“Negotiating Difficult Situations” Workshop **

Toni Robinson, MIT Ombudsperson, will lead exercises demonstrating how to handle situations including negotiating credit, dealing with harassment, and negotiating attention from supervisors.

Workshop in collaboration with the Ombudsperson Office and WGA³. Co-sponsored by the Student Activities Office. Dessert provided.

Tuesday 4/27

1:30-3 pm
66-168

“Collaboration in Invention” Panel

Women in research and industry discuss the role of collaboration in their inventions.

Panel co-sponsored by the Lemelson-MIT Program. Reception to follow.

Wednesday 4/28

6:30-8 pm
56-154

“Life Choices: Work and Everything Else” Panel

Women in research and industry discuss the choices they have made regarding work/life division, marriage, and children.

Panel co-sponsored by Association of MIT Alumnae (AMITA) and the MIT Alumni Association. Heavy hors d'oeuvres provided.

Thursday 4/29

6:30-8 pm
4-237

Graduate Women Mixer **

Come network with fellow graduate women! Sloan's Lakshmi Balachandra will lead an introductory exercise on improvisational leadership.

Sponsored in part by Google. Drinks and hors d'oeuvres provided.

Friday 4/30

5-6:30 pm
Moore Room
6-321

*RSVP requested at <http://gsc.mit.edu/gwamit/events/spring2010.html>

Graduate Women at MIT
<http://gsc.mit.edu/gwamit>

