

Bias and Beers

Are you interested in learning more about bias in science? Join GW@MIT, Tufts GWiSE, and New England Graduate Women in Science and Engineering for a “Bias & Beers” discussion group. We will be discussing two articles related to bias in science over pizza and beer. It will be just like your lab’s journal club, but with BEER! All genders are welcome -- we especially welcome our male colleagues!

Monday, January 22nd

MIT Stratton Student Center, Room 307

(84 Massachusetts Ave.)

5:30-7:30pm
