

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS : TEACHING FELLOW POSITIONS - 2018-2019

Sciences Po welcomes applications from post-doctoral and doctoral students near the end of their PhD for one-year teaching positions on one of its three Anglophone undergraduate campuses in France: Reims, Menton or Le Havre. Each campus focuses on a world region and offers a 3-year Bachelor of Arts degree in History, Political Science, Economics, Sociology, Law and Quantitative Methods. Courses are taught in English. The successful applicant's area of expertise will be relevant to the disciplines taught at Sciences Po and to the world region the campus focuses on.

Reims hosts two different programs, one focusing on North America and Europe, and another on Africa and Europe www.sciencespo.fr/college/en/campus/reims. Menton's program focuses on the Middle-East and Europe www.sciencespo.fr/college/en/campus/menton. Le Havre's program focuses on Asia and Europe www.sciencespo.fr/college/en/campus/le-havre.

1. RESPONSIBILITIES

Your primary responsibility will be teaching the core disciplines at Sciences Po. At the end of the academic year, you will also have time to pursue your research activities. You will have a classic French teaching load of 128 annual hours ("équivalent cours magistral"). This implies roughly three classes per semester and some additional pedagogical responsibilities. You are also expected to be present on campus during the academic year.

2. LENGTH OF STAY

Preferred start date: August 20th, 2018. Each semester runs 12 weeks: the fall term from September to December, the spring term from January to May. See academic calendar: <http://formation.sciences-po.fr/en/contenu/university-calendar>

The contract is limited to one year. Teaching Fellows are expected to take up residence near campus.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Gross monthly salary of 2.128€, from August 20th 2018 to July 19th 2019. Full health benefits through the French national system. Access to resources and facilities on all Sciences Po campuses.

4. REQUIREMENTS

Successful applicants will have completed their PhD or will be about to submit their doctoral thesis, in one of Sciences Po's fields (History, Political Science, Economics, Sociology, Law, Quantitative Methods). Their research and teaching interests should be relevant to the regional focus of the chosen campus. Teaching experience is strongly preferred and fluency in English is mandatory. French or other non-English languages will be considered a plus.
