

---

---

All-MIT Sloan Mix-Up Party at Fenway Park

From the folks at the Sloan Fellows Program for Innovation and Global Leadership

We are so close and, yet, so far...the breathtaking rhythm at MIT Sloan makes it quite hard to reach out to the different programs and cross-socialize. It's time for a change! Please join us for an amazing party at the legendary Fenway Park, home of the Red Sox, and let's get to know each other better. We will have live rock music playing at the indoors State Pavilion, with great views over the field, plus cash bar and food.

Where: State Street Pavilion (access through Gate D), Fenway Park, 4 Yawkey Way, Boston.

When: November 3, 6:00 – 10:00 p.m.

Who: ALL Sloan folks: Faculty, MBA's, LFM's, SF's...

The event is open to all MIT Sloan students, save for undergrads not of legal drinking age (because there is alcohol being served). Spouses and significant others are welcome as well.

---

---

PhD NEWS

Student and Professor Honored

Fadi Kanaan, a fifth year Ph.D. student, and Dirk Jenter, an Assistant Professor of Finance at MIT Sloan, won the CRA International Best Paper in Corporate Finance award at the 2006 Western Finance Association meetings for their joint paper "CEO Turnover and Relative Performance Evaluation."

Dirk Jenter (L) and Fadi Kanaan.

Alex Edmans

Doctoral Student Wins Award

Alex Edmans recently attended the 2006 Financial Management Association conference where he won the McGraw-Hill/Irwin Best Paper in Corporate Finance award for his paper "Inside Debt", which is a theory justifying the substantial use of debt-like instruments such as pensions in executive compensation.