

THE MIDDLE EAST: THE PATH FORWARD

Saturday, February 10th 2007 | 9AM–6PM

Center for Government and International Studies, Harvard University
South Building, 1730 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, MA

HARVARD
ARAB ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

جمعية خريجي
هارفارد العرب

OPENING SPEAKER
Mohamed A. El-Erian

President and CEO of Harvard
Management Company
Boston, MA

The Harvard Arab Alumni Association's 5th Conference focuses on three trends currently sweeping through the Middle East: the shifting power dynamics impacted by sectarian divisions and the increasing role of Islam in governing, the revitalization of the region's economies, and the social development momentum across the region.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Ambassador Aziz Mekouar

Ambassador of Morocco
to the United States
Washington, DC

PANELS

After Iraq: the Shifting Balance of Powers | The Economic Revitalization of the Middle East
Social Development Momentum across the Region | Case Studies in Change

pre-register online at www.harvardarabalumni.org

SPONSORED BY

McKinsey & Company