

“Sublime . . . with a sense of awe and mystery. Exquisitely beautiful . . . magical.” — Daily Telegraph

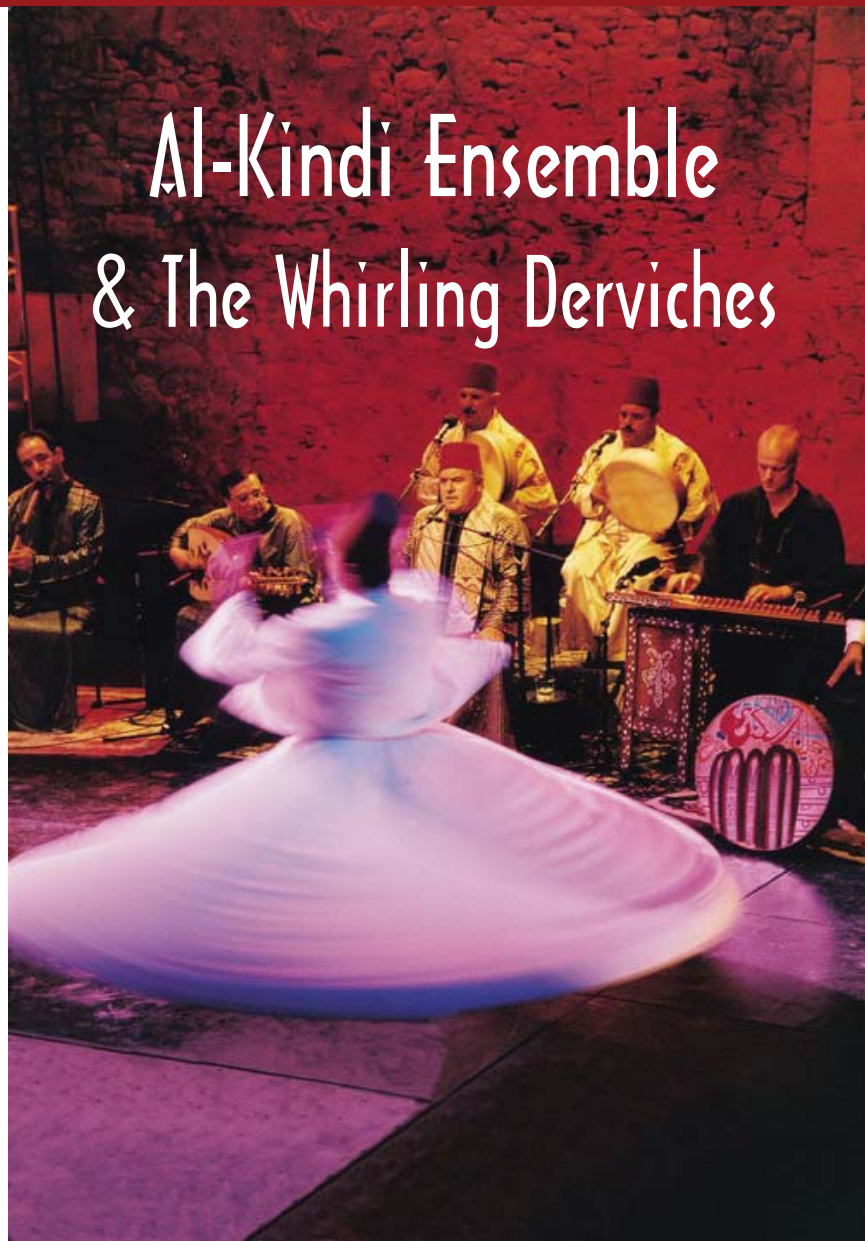

Al-Kindi Ensemble & The Whirling Dervishes

Saturday, September 20th 2008
8:30 PM

Sanders Theater, Harvard University

Buy tickets at online at:
www.cacboston.org

Tickets will not be sold at the door

The Al-Kindi Ensemble is devoted to the classical musical traditions of the Near and Middle East. Showcasing the Sufi repertoire from Damascus's Great Mosque of Omeyyad, these master musicians from Syria, Egypt and France create an inspiring blend of sacred and earthly music with the Oriental zither (qânûn), Arab lute, reed flute (ney) and percussion (riqq). This special performance also features four Whirling Dervishes and Sheikh Hamza Shakkûr, one of the finest liturgical singers in the Near East — a man of towering artistic and physical presence with a deep, magnificently rounded voice.

For additional information email us at:
info@cacboston.org

copresented with World Music

