For the fifth year, The University of Balamand announces the launching of CONNECT—its cultural and academic exchange program.

CONNECT aims at offering youth (17 to 25 years old) the chance to experience living, learning and building human relationships in the beautiful environment of Lebanon.

The program extends over a period of 4 weeks, from July 3 until July 31, 2006. Based at the University's main campus in North Lebanon, CONNECT's activities provide links to many of the significant dimensions of the country.
