Position:

The Department of Systems and Operations Management at California State University, Northridge (CSUN) is seeking a tenure-track faculty member in Operations Management, Business Analytics, or a closely related field at the rank of Assistant Professor.

The successful candidate will teach courses related to operations and supply chain management, along with business analytics courses, and have research interests in the above areas or a closely related field.

In addition to teaching, the position requires weekly office hours, attending faculty meetings, participation in assessment of student learning, and service to the department, college, and university. The successful candidate will be held to the standards and requirements of the college and department in which he/she/they is/are housed for recommending tenure and promotion. Given CSUN's commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and engagement in a diverse environment, the successful candidate will help the Department achieve equitable academic outcomes for all students through teaching, student mentorship, scholarship, and service.

Required Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree in Operations Management, Business Analytics, or a closely related field from an accredited institution by August 21, 2024.
- Evidence of effective teaching potential and/or experiences at college or university-level both online and in-person.
- Evidence of, or clear potential for, working successfully with a diverse student population.
- At the time of appointment, candidates must meet current AACSB International standards for classification as Scholarly Academic (SA) and must continue to maintain this classification throughout their tenure.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Evidence of, or clear potential for, incorporating inclusion, diversity, and educational equity in their teaching and/or scholarship.
- Evidence of, or clear potential for, using culturally responsive pedagogy that leads to equitable outcomes for all students.
- Evidence of, or clear potential for, creating a student-centered learning environment.
- Ability to teach manufacturing resource planning and/or supply chain analytics in addition to other operations and supply chain management or business analytics courses.
- Prior teaching experience in operations and supply chain management with the SAP software.
- Teaching/research experience in business analytics.
- Evidence of, or clear potential to produce successful quality research work in operations management, business analytics, or a closely related field.
- Relevant professional or business experience in the field and/or relationships with the business/industry.

Application Deadline:

Screening of applications will begin November 30, 2023. Priority will be given to applicants who meet the screening deadline; however, the position will remain open until filled.

How to Apply:

Candidates should apply by completing the CSUN online application. To apply and for more detailed information on the application and hiring process, please visit this link: www.csun.edu/careers

Applicants must submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) statement, and the names of three referees who can address the candidate's teaching, research, and service qualifications to the website in the section above. The DEI statement should provide an understanding of the candidate's capabilities to address diversity, inclusion, and equity in support of CSUN diverse student and community populations and should span their teaching, research, and service. In later stages of the search process, applicants may be requested to provide additional materials, including letters of recommendation.

At time of appointment, the successful candidate, if not a U.S. citizen, must have authorization from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to work in the United States.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available online here.
