

The University of Tennessee - Knoxville: Knoxville Academic Units: Haslam College of Business: Supply Chain Management

Location

Supply Chain Management Department, Haslam College of Business

Open Date

Dec 09, 2024

Description

Non-tenure track (NTT) position as Lecturer, Teaching Professor, or Faculty of Practice Series will reside within the Department of Supply Chain Management, and the selected faculty member will have responsibility for teaching in the UTK undergraduate supply chain program, the online Master of Science in Supply Chain Management (MS-SCM), and in the on-campus Master of Science in Global Supply Chain. The selected candidate may also teach in Executive Education or other non-degree programs as needed.

The faculty member will report to the Department Head of Supply Chain Management and work closely with other tenured and non-tenured supply chain management faculty in order to collaboratively achieve our department's instructional goals.

The NTT faculty member will also be expected to engage, inform, motivate and build connections with students and external university partners; and have an ability to work in a team-based, client-centered, and fast-paced setting.
