

Working Group on Support Staff Issues

Friday, January 31, 2014 12:15 pm - 1:15 pm E17-133

Please join us for a lunchtime seminar

Everything You Need To Know About Workplace Bullying

Johanna Harris, an attorney specializing in labor and employment law, is the Working Group on Support Staff Issue's featured guest. The seminar will address important questions including:

- What is a workplace bully?
- Is bullying an effective way to get ahead in an organization?
- Who can be a bully—managers, co-workers, peers, subordinates?
- Who is the target of bullying?
- I believe I am being bullied—what can or should I do? What should I not do?

RSVP and submit your questions*

<http://tinyurl.com/bullytalkwithjohannaharris>

Attorney Harris is the CEO of Hire Fire and Retire, LLC and the author of Use Protection, a publication that addresses employment law issues.

For more details, go to <http://hirefireandretire.com>

Due to time limitations, questions submitted ahead of time will receive priority (submitter's anonymity will be respected!).*