

Watson Ecosystem

Partner Marketplace for Cognitive Applications

IBM Watson is powering a new generation of cognitive applications. Through the IBM Watson Ecosystem, we're teaming with application development partners who are entrepreneurs and visionaries to bring cognitive computing to the market in transformative ways.

Join us for a IBM Watson Ecosystem presentation hosted by the MIT Post-Doc Association.

During this session you will:

- Find out what makes for a killer Watson app
- Learn about the Watson app development process and see the technology in action
- Network with other cognitive computing developers and enthusiasts
