

Career Opportunities for You in Germany – Information Session

Place: Boston Marriott Cambridge, 50 Broadway (Kendall Square), Boston
Time: Sunday, February 22, 2015, 9:00 AM-12:30 PM
Breakfast buffet opens at 8:00 AM (Salon 3)

Contact: Dr. Gerrit Roessler, GAIN Program Director and “Research in Germany” Coordinator, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD); Email: roessler@daad.org, Phone: 212.758.3223 ext 217

For more information: <http://www.research-in-germany.de/ecf2015>

Welcome Address (9:00 AM)

Location: Salon 3, Boston Marriott Cambridge, all participants

Helmut Landes, Acting German Consul General for the New England States in Boston

Session I: Pursuing Graduate Studies in Germany (9:30 AM – 12:30 PM)

Location: Salon 4, Boston Marriott Cambridge

This session is targeted to advanced undergraduate and graduate students and provides information on how to look for the right academic fit in Germany. The main focus will be on earning a doctoral degree in Germany, although Master's programs will be mentioned. All disciplines are welcome.

Experts in the field will present study and PhD programs in Germany and give you useful information on possible funding opportunities and application processes in an interactive, eye to eye round table session.

Moderator:

Peter Kerrigan, Director of Marketing and Deputy Director, German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD North America)

1. Introduction of Experts

PD Dr. Dieter Brockmann, Managing Director, International Graduate School in Molecular Medicine, Ulm University

Tjark Hecht, Program Consultant, Karlsruhe School of Optics & Photonics, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, KIT

Dr. Wolfgang Holtkamp, Senior Advisor International Affairs, University of Stuttgart

Peter Kerrigan, Director of Marketing and Deputy Director, DAAD North America

Stefanie Meder, Junior Marketing Manager, WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management

Dr. Lindsay Murrells, PhD Program Manager, German Cancer Research Center (DKFZ)

Dr. Christiane Wüllner, Managing Director, Ruhr-University Bochum Research School

2. Round Tables with Experts

Small interactive group sessions, where you can ask representatives from German universities and research institutes about their programs and anything else you always wanted to know about research and research careers in Germany.

3. Coffee Break

4. Plenary Discussion

Experts will address the most frequently asked questions from the round table discussions.