

Results for the MIT-PDA July-Dec 2016 Travel Grants

MIT Postdoctoral Association is pleased to announce the winners for the second cycle (July-Dec 2016) of the MIT-PDA travel grants. A total of 104 applications were received, and the applications were curated and reviewed by the following committee based on the scientific merits, originality, compelling description, and impact:

Dennis Sheberla, Dinesh Kumar, Jelena Stojakovic, Min Ding, Kathryn Blakey Dupont, Kishori Mohan Konwar, and Paulo Garcia

Based on the recommendation of the committee, the list of the winners is given below in the RANDOM order:

S.No.	Name	Meeting Location	Recommended Amount ($ USD)
1.	Zhenghan Qi	London, UK	1000
2.	Clemens Bauer	Vienna, Austria	1000
3.	Ambika Bajpayee	Andover, New Hampshire	500
4.	Ming-fai Fong	San Diego, CA, USA	600
5.	Virginia Burger	Baltimore, MD, USA	500

Travel grants will be paid upon submission of all the conference-related receipts to the treasurer of the PDA, i.e. after you have attended the conference. The funds may be revoked in case the awardee is found ineligible for not fulfilling any of the following criterions:

- 1. Applicant must be a current MIT post-doc.
- 2. Must be presenting a talk/poster at a conference scheduled between July 1st, 2016 to December 31st, 2016.
- 3. Have not received a past travel grant from the MIT PDA.
- 4. Submitted application only for a single conference.
- 5. At least, a part of the presented work MUST have been carried out at MIT, and the MIT PI should be a co-author.
- 6. Must NOT be currently an officer at MIT PDA.

FOR ANY SPECIFIC ENQUIRIES PLEASE ATTEND ANY OF THE PDA MEETINGS (<https://pda.mit.edu/>)