

The Art of Behavioral Interviewing

April 18, 12:00-1:30 PM
Monadnock Room (2nd Floor)
Broad Institute, 415 Main Street

While your technical skills will get you the interview, it is your behavioral attributes that will get you the job. This session facilitated by Bob Dolan will discuss preparation and strategies for a successful interview. In addition, sample behavioral interview questions will be provided along with tips on how to answer those tough questions.
