

New England Future Faculty Workshop For Underrepresented Groups* in STEM Fields July 10, 2018

The Future Faculty Workshop is a one-day conference held at Northeastern University for postdocs and advanced graduate students interested in faculty careers.

Topics Include:

- Finding your institutional fit
- Making your CV stand out
- Interviewing skills
- Crafting a research statement
- Negotiating the job offer
- Creating a quick-start plan
- Honing time management skills
- Networking

Apply by May 1st online at:

northeastern.edu/advance/recruitment/

Accepted participants will be notified by May 16th and directed to the registration site where they will pay a fee of $50 by June 1st to confirm their participation.

Sponsors include:

Northeastern University
ADVANCE Office of Faculty Development

Northeastern University
Office of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion

UMassAmherst

RESEARCH CORPORATION for SCIENCE ADVANCEMENT
A foundation dedicated to science since 1912.

*Per NSF, underrepresented groups in STEM consists of three racial or ethnic minority groups (Black, Hispanic, and American Indian or Alaska Native), as well as women and persons with disabilities, whose representation in STEM education or employment is smaller than their representation in the U.S. population.