

Student Loan Repayment Strategies

Overwhelmed by student loans?

This workshop examines ways in which graduates and parents can manage education debt as well as guide borrowers' successful transition from college to repayment. Attendees will learn:

- How to identify repayment responsibilities for each loan
- Methods for reducing monthly payments
- Strategies for identifying cash flow to prepay education debt
- Ways to avoid becoming delinquent and defaulting on education debt, even during times of personal economic hardship
- Resources for managing and maintaining a repayment strategy

Wednesday, December 5 / 12:00–1:30 pm

Presenter:

Jeanne Mahan, M.A.;
