

History of Technology

Visiting Assistant Professor in the Department of History at Virginia Tech; nine-month appointment, beginning August 2006 (final approval still pending). Ph.D. preferred but will consider advanced ABD at Visiting Lecturer rank. Teaching experience required. Teaching load: 3 courses per semester. Successful candidate will teach a 2-semester upper-division sequence in the history of technology and one or more sections of a lower-division American history survey course (the Civil War to the present). An undergraduate course in area of specialization is also possible. Review of applications will begin 17 July 2006 and continue until position is filled. Send letter of application, c.v., 3 letters of recommendation, and copies of teaching evaluations to: History of Technology Search Committee, Department of History (0117), Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA 24061. Fax: (540) 231-8724. Virginia Tech has a strong commitment to the principle of diversity, and in that spirit, seeks a broad spectrum of candidates, including women, minorities, and people with disabilities. Individuals with disabilities desiring accommodations in the application process should notify Mark V. Barrow, Jr., Department of History, (540) 231-4099, and TTY (540) 231-6259 (Personnel).