

Exploring ethics at the center
of science and technology

FRIDAY
MARCH 20
12:00PM
MIT 3-270

NUCLEAR WEAPONS AND THE BLACK FREEDOM MOVEMENT

Join us for a compelling and fascinating discussion of African Americans' involvement in the non-proliferation movement with Dr. Vincent Intondi, Associate Professor of History, Montgomery College in Washington, DC.

Please RSVP
for LUNCH
to radius@mit.edu

*Co-hosted with the Institute Community and Equity Office
Luncheon Seminar Series & the MIT Program in Science, Technology & Society*

