

THE DIGNITY OF DIFFERENCE

Sir Jonathan Sacks,

Chief Rabbi of the United Hebrew Congregations of the British Commonwealth

Tuesday, October 16

4:30pm–6:00, Wong Auditorium

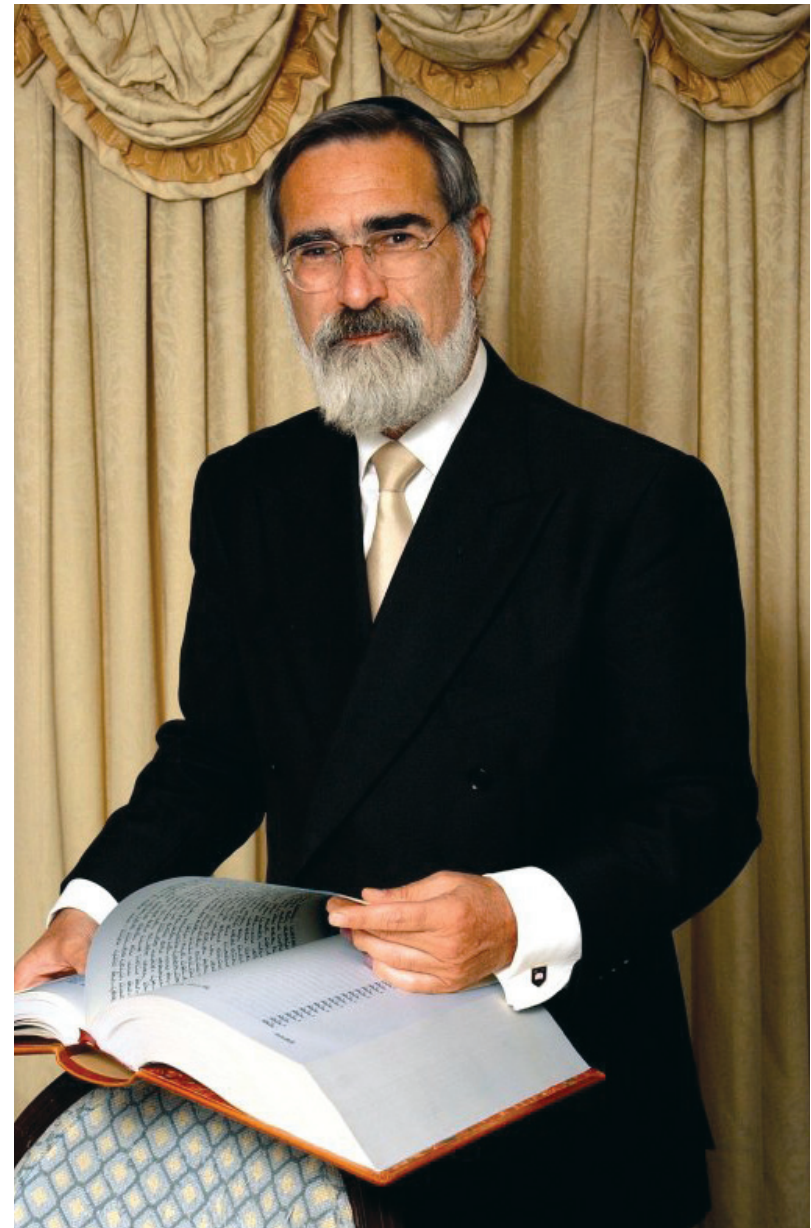

Jonathan Sacks is widely recognised as one of the world's leading contemporary exponents of Judaism. In his talk, Sir Jonathan Sacks will discuss how the tragedy of 9/11 intensified the danger caused by religious differences around the world. As the politics of identity begin to replace the politics of ideology, can religion, Sacks asks, become a force for peace? His is a radical proposal for reconciling hatreds. Sacks argues that we must do more than search for values common to all faiths; we must also reframe the way we see our differences.
