Memento Mori: We are all going to die...and why that's a good thing! "Remember that you will die" is classic spiritual advice, renewed each year on Ash Wednesday. In the ancient Catholic devotional practice called "Memento Mori", one calls to mind the inevitability of death as a way of focusing on what we live for. In our final Thomistic Institute talk of the semester, Sr. Theresa Aletheia Noble of the Daughters of St. Paul, author of the book Remember Your Death: Memento Mori (written with a skull on her desk for inspiration) will be speaking on the importance of death for life. Thursday, April 11, 5:30, room 3-270
