In preparation for All Souls Day, there will be a book set out after each Mass for people to write down names of those who have passed away. The names will be read aloud during a Memorial Mass in November and we will pray for all of them.

Thomistic Institute Lecture: The Psychology of Compassion: Stoicism in the City of God. There's an ancient debate about whether strong emotions make us more like animals and therefore less than human, and what to do about them. Prof. Sara Byers of Boston College's philosophy department will give a lecture on an important moment in that debate, St. Augustine's argument with the Stoics in The City of God 9.5, which can help us understand some things about psychology, and politics, today. Tuesday, Nov. 5, at 5:30 PM, in room 3-270.

Melchizedek Group for Priestly Vocations: Fr. Moloney will lead a discussion group about the nature of the priestly vocation and how to discern if God is calling you to the "order of Melchizedek" (Heb. 5:6, 7:17) using the book To Save a Thousand Souls. We meet on Mondays 5-6PM. To attend doesn't mean that you are thinking about entering the seminary, or even that you're not dating. It can simply mean that you're interested in supporting others think about the priesthood. Contact mteodros@mit.edu if interested. Books are available from Father's office in W11.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) and Course in the Fundamentals of the Catholic Faith: Fr. Moloney will be offering a class in the fundamentals of the Catholic faith on Sundays @ 11:15 AM in W11/SDR. The class will cover everything from the Trinity to Church history to the Sacraments, prayer, and the moral life. It is meant to be both a high-level introduction to the faith appropriate for interested non-Catholics, and a serious review of the faith for those who are Catholics. It is required for those in becoming Catholic, being Baptized, receiving First Communion, or being Confirmed (who should also reach out to Fr. Moloney to set up a time to talk individually (dmoloney@mit.edu)).

Women's Marriage Discussion Group. This group meets every other week to discuss marriage as a vocation. It is open to all women (i.e. you do not need to be married). Please email tcc.marriage.vocation@gmail.com for additional details or to be added to the group's listerv. Dinner will be served and kids are welcome!
