The MIT Pro-Life Club will be hosting a talk this coming Tuesday, April 26th from 6:00-7:00 in room 4-270 (with a Zoom attendance option), titled "Pro-Life Success in the States: Strategies for the Current Decade and Beyond".

The speaker is Michael New, who is a research associate at the Busch School of Business at Catholic University. Mr. New is an expert in determining the concrete impact of pro-life policy, and this topic will become even more relevant if Roe v. Wade is overturned this June and each state makes their own decision about abortion laws.

If you would like to attend via Zoom, please RSVP here as the link will be emailed out shortly before the talk.
