MIT CATHOLIC IAP LECTURES '25

Understanding the Catholic Mass:

Is the Catholic Mass really a continuation of the Last Supper celebrated by Jesus? Why do Catholics need a priest to lead the Mass? Where do the prayers and readings at the Mass come from? Why are Catholics required to go to Sunday Mass, doesn't God hear prayers when they are said at home or on a walk? How can a person get more out of attending Catholic Mass?

If you have ever asked these or similar questions, join us for this thought provoking lecture on the Catholic Mass.

Getting Closer to God:

What does it mean to live a life close to God? How can a person live a life filled with meaning, value, purpose and in close relationship with God?

If you want to lead a more spiritual life, a life with better balance, peace, and happiness, this lecture is for you!

How to Pray:

What is prayer? What does it mean to pray? How do you pray? Are there different ways to pray? These questions, and more, will be answered during this lecture on ways to talk to and hear God in daily life.

PRESENTER: All lectures will be presented by Fr Michael Medas, MSW, MIT Catholic Chaplain and Director of MIT Catholic Ministry.

DAY/TIME: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 27-29: 7:30pm – 8:30pm.
(Refreshments beginning at 7:15pm)
